Subjects That Will Be Considered by This Great Guthering in Petersburg-The Young People's Convention Next Week.

The one hundred and thirteenth session of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be held in Centenary church, this city, commencing next Wednesday and continuing

The conference will be presided over by Eishop Galloway, of Jackson, Miss., who is the youngest of all the bishops in the that he was elected bishop when the General Conference met in this city in 1886. During his stay here guest of Mr. Burnett Lewis, on east Franklin street.

probably be elected to fill the same positions at this conference. The business sessions of the conference will be held in the morning from 9:50 to 1:30. The committee meetings will take place in the afternoon, while devotional services will be held at night. On Sunday the various pulpts of the city will be filled by the visiting pastors of the conference.

OTHER NOTED MINISTERS.

In addition to the Bishop of the Con-In addition to the bishop of the con-ference, there are also some other dis-tinguished ministers who will be in at-tendance. Among them will be Dr. S. A. Steel, of Nashville, Tenn., who is the general secretary of the Epworth Lenguers of the entire Church: Dr. H. C. Morrison, of Nashville, Tenn., the general secretary of the Board of Missions; Dr. David Mor-ton, of Louisville, Ky., general secretary of the Church Extension Society, and Dr. E. E. Hoss, of Nashville, Tenn., editor-fin-chief of the Nashville Christian Advo-

At the same time that the conference is in session there will be a meeting of a committee, composed of the different laymen and pastors from many por one of Virginia, to arrange for a State ally of the Epworth Leaguera, whose representatives will be visitors at the conference. This raily will hardly be held in any of the larger cities of the State, as it will occur in the summer time, and some rural place will, no doubt, be selected. During the session of the conference there will be a raily some night of the Epworth Leagues of Richmond, at which Dr. Steel will deliver an address. will deliver an address

BIG ROSEBUD RALLY.

BIG ROSEBUD RALLY.

On Sunday afternoon, at the Mozart Academy of Music, the Rosebud Missionary Society will hold a big raily. on which occasion Bishop Galloway will deliver the chief address. There will be a choir, composed of 125 of the best singers that can be selected from the choristers of the various churches here. The musical programme will be under the direction of Mr. Shepherd Webb. "The Banner of the Cross" will be the principal hyma sung on this occasion.

The Rosebud Missionary Society is composed of children, and first sprang into existence in January, 1839, being formed by the children of a pastor in North Carolina, who elected their little sister "Rosebud" as president. They communicated the fact to Rev. Joan Baptist Laurence, who was then connected with the Richmond Christian Advocate. He at once took an interest in this little society, and suggested that it be called the "Rosebud society, in honor of its little president. This society, which started with the children of one family, now has thousands of members throughout this country.

started with the children of one family, now has thousands of members throughout this country.

On Sunday morning at Centenary church, there will be an ordination of deacons by Bishop Galloway. At night there will occur an ordination of elders at some place to be designated by a "committee on public worship." On Saturday night, the anniversary of the missionary society of the conference will be held, and on some night during the conference the Bishop will preach at Union Station church.

Seven preachers have died during the year, and memorial services to these, which will be very solemn and impressive, will be held during the conference.

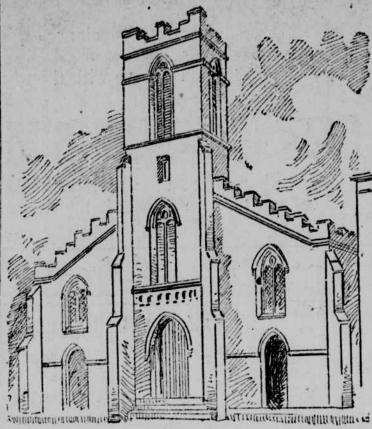

REV. DR. PAUL WHITEHEAD, (Secretary of the Conference.)

The preachers who have passed away since the last canference are Revs. John W. Hilldrup, of Scottsville, James C. Martin, of Norfolk, William E. Payne, of Charlottesville, Wilbur F. Robins, of Cape Charles city, D. P. Wills, of Portsmouth, E. P. Wilson, of Hampton, and S. W. Easton, of Belle Haven.

Norfolk, on the other, will be in some way adjusted.

The marriage of Rev. George W. Carter, of Portsmouth, will, it is thought, also receive consideration by the conference. All of the business of the conference is transacted under the head of "questions," of which there are forty-one. Of course, the matters in which the preachers and churches are especially interested is the question of appointments. This is the last business of the conference. Everything is done and the minutes of the last conference read and approved before the appointments are read by the Bishop. The assignments of pastors are made by the Bishop, after a consultation with the presiding ciders, who are generally called the Bishop's

The business of the conference will consist chiefly in the teception of preachers circled orders, admission into full connection, passing upon the characters of the conference will nection, passing upon the characters of the conference will be dead of pastors, who have died, will also have to be filled. Rev. W. A. Laughen, the paster of Denny-Street church, Fulton, will have to leave his charge this year, having served his four-years' pasterate. The congregation has greatly increased, and the church is in a flourishing condition.

GATHERING OF BAPTIST HOSTS. The General Association to Convene

in Petersburg on Friday. The Baptist General Association of Virginia will meet in its annual session in the First church, in Petersburg, on Friday, the 15th of September, at 7:30 P. M. It will be called to order by the president, Rev. Thomas S. Dunaway, D. D., of Fredericksburg. Dr. Dunaway is one of the ablest and most honored of the of the ablest and most honored of the Baptist ministry in the State. It is thought likely that he will be recalled to nis present position, possibly without a dissenting vote. He is a man of fine character and abilities, a master of assembiles, and an accomplished parliamentarian. The work of organization will be the first business before the body. It is probable that this will be accomplished quickly. ed quickly.

Rev. H. C. Smith, of Martinsville, is the recording secretary of the body, and H. Theodore Ellyson, Esq., is his assistant. Rev. George J. Hobday is assistant secretary; Norvell Ryland, Esq. treas-urer, and the late James Leigh Jones was auditor.

Beyond filling the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Jones, and some possible change in the vice-presidents, four of whom are elected at every annual ses-sion, it is not probable that any changes (President of the Baptist Association.) will be made in the official corps. After will be made in the official corps. After organization will come the introductory sermon, which will this year be preached by Dr. W. W. Landrum, the popular pastor of the Second Baptist church, of this city. This session of the body will, perhaps, be the longest in its history. It will certainly last nearly four days, exclusive of Sunday, and a committee, appointed last year to arrange a programme for the coming session, have in accordance with their instructions arranged for a session of that length. Their report will probably be adopted without division. It is also of that length.

be adopted without division. It is also likely that the session will be more largely attended than any in the history of the body since the semi-centennial year of Richmond College, when the meeting was neid in this city. The ground for this prediction is in the great interest which is said to be felt inhroughout the State concerning the proposition to radically change some of the methods of State evangelization now in vogue. At present this work is done by two boards, the State Mission Beard, in Richmond, with Mr. William Ellyson as secretary, and the Sunday-School and Bible Board, in Richmond, with Mr. William Ellyson as secretary, and the Sunday-School and Bible Board, in Richmond, with Mr. William Ellyson as secretary, and the Sunday-School and Bible Board, in Richmond, with Mr. William Ellyson is not a salaried officer, and Dr. Pilcher is, WHAT THE CONTENTION IS.

The gist of the controversy seems to be this: A considerable number of Baptists in the State believe that the two boards ought to be unified; that the work is essentially the same, and that a division of it is artificial and unnecessary. On the other hand, a considerable number most efficiently by the two boards maintain that this work can be done most efficiently by the two boards maintaining their separate existence; that the merging of the two into one would reduce the concerning the proposition to radically concerning the proposition of radical proposition most efficiently by the two boards main-taining their separate existence; that the merging of the two into one would re-duce the receipts, and otherwise operate to the injury of the work sought to be done. Besides this main issue there are other minor matters, such as the em-ployment of a man for his whole time in addition to the present officers in charge of the State work, the limitation of colportage work, and other matters not necessary to mention here. Already there is considerable feeling through the State, as may be judged by contributions in the is considerable feeling through the State, as may be judged by centributions in the Religious Herald, the State organ. This, however, has not been unfraternal, and it is probable that though the debate may be high and exciting, they will all come away from Petersburg in a good humor. Special attention will be paid this year to the work of education. Richmond College will claim and receive an this year to the work of education. Richmond College will claim and receive an important place on the programme. It is understood that there will be some report of the condition and prospects of the institution; that there will be an address by President Boatwright, another by President Whitman, of the Columbian University, and yet others by distinguished educators. It is said that this subject will be considered on Saturday night, the 16th.

WORK OF THE ORPHANGE.

WORK OF THE ORPHANGE.

A recent addition to the objects fostered by the association is the orphanage at Salem under the management of Rev. George J. Hobday. This institution has had a high and almost unexampled prosperity. New buildings have gone up, the gift of private munificence, and ample provision made for the carrent support of the institution. It is filled with happy and healthy children to the number of sixty-five, and it is not improbable that shortly, that number will be nearly or quite doubled. From $12,000 to $14,000 has been given this year to that object.

wood, with music by Professor Lesile Watson, was sung over several times. It is entitled "Onward B. Y. P. U. A." and the words are as follows:

Hark! I hear the tramp of legions, Marching with resistless tread.

See! they come, a host, advancing
With their banners high o'erhead.
"Whither march ye, youthful sondiers?
Under whose command, I pray?"
Hear the answer—"We're the army
Of the B. Y. P. U. A."

CHORUS. "We are marching on to Zion, Christ himself is at our head; Such a chief we dare to follow Wheresoover we are led."

But what means this flaming banner, With its strange device in gold?

Loyalty?—To what, I pray you,
Is this loyalty you hold?"

"Tis a pledge to Him who leads us,
That our swords shall never rest,
Till the world shall how before Him.
North and South and East and West."

Onward! Onward, Christian soldiers! Find the battle's hercest fray. Satan's hosts shall flee before you, All shall own Messiah's sway.

Ignorance and superstition
Must forever pass away.

Onward! onward, press the battle!

Onward B. Y. P. U. A.!

CHORUS (to Last Verse.) Onward! onward march to Zion! Christ himself is at your head. Where He leads you well may follow, With no thought of fear or dread.

YANKEE DOODLE AND DIXIE.

The Noted Taylor Brothers to Appear Here To-Morrow Might.

"Yankee Doodle and Dixie" is the very striking theme which will form the basis of a most interesting entertainment to be given to-morrow night in the Academy of Music by ex-Governor Bob and Hon. Alf, the Taylor brothers, celebrated as the rival politicians of Tennessee. The entertainment consists of a pot pourri of humor, pathos, and music, the latter feature being contributed by a male quartette, of which ex-Governor Bob is the second tenor, Reports credit the performances of these two talented gentlemen as a most unique and entertaining production.
